The Responsibilities of Staff
Our staff will
· Foster in our students self-esteem, self-respect and respect for others
· Demonstrate by example the high standards of personal and social behaviour we expect of our students.
· Discuss bullying with all classes, so that every student learns about the damage it causes to both the child who is bullied and to the bully and the importance of telling a teacher about bullying when it happens.
· Be alert to signs of distress and other possible indications of bullying.
· Listen to children who have been bullied, take what they say seriously and act to support and protect them.
· Report suspected cases of bullying to the Principal
· Follow up any complaint by a parent about bullying, and report back promptly and fully on the action which has been taken.
· Deal with observed instances of bullying promptly and effectively, in accordance with agreed procedures.

The Responsibilities of Students
We expect our students to:
· Refrain from becoming involved in any kind of bullying, even at the risk of incurring temporary unpopularity.
· Intervene to protect the student who is being bullied, unless it is unsafe to do so.
· Report to a member of staff any witnessed or suspected instances of bullying, to dispel any climate of secrecy and help to prevent further instances.

Anyone who becomes the target of bullies should:
· Not suffer in silence, but have the courage to speak out, to put an end to their own suffering and that of other potential targets.

The Responsibilities of Parents
We ask our parents to support their children and the school by:
· Watching for signs of distress or unusual behaviour in their children, which might be evidence of bullying.
· Advising their children to report any bullying to their class teacher and explain the implications of allowing the bullying to continue unchecked, for themselves and for other pupils.
· Advising their children not to retaliate violently to any forms of bullying.
· Being sympathetic and supportive towards their children, and reassuring them that appropriate action will be taken;
· Keep a written record of any reported instances of bullying
· Informing the school of any suspected bullying, even if their children are not involved;
· Co-operating with the school, if their children are accused of bullying, to try to ascertain the truth. And point out the implications of bullying, both for the children who are bullied and for the bullies themselves.
